

HELLENIC REPUBLIC

National and Kapodistrian
University of Athens

EST. 1837

In collaboration with:

- Aristotle University of Thessaloniki
- University of Patras
- University of Crete

The Athens MA in Ancient Philosophy

Call for Applications, Academic Year 2023-24

Application Period: February 1 – June 30, 2023

AthensMA.phs.uoa.gr

Athens, January 10, 2023

The Athens MA in Ancient Philosophy promotes the study of Ancient Greek Philosophy in its entire historical and thematic range. It is the only program in Greece (and among a few worldwide) that focuses solely on Ancient Philosophy as a subject of systematic study and research. The Athens MA is the result of a collaboration of four major Greek universities, which have joined forces to create a highly competitive Program. Courses will be taught in Athens by professors from Greek universities, as well as by visiting scholars from international institutions.

The Athens MA in Ancient Philosophy aims to provide in-depth knowledge of Ancient Philosophy and high-level research training in its various fields. Upon completion of the program, graduates should be able to conduct independent and collaborative research and fulfil all requirements for pursuing doctoral studies. The program admits up to 20 students per academic year.

The Program's duration is a full academic year (12 months – 75 ECTS): two Semesters of courses are followed by a Summer Term, during which students must prepare and submit a master's thesis. The fees of the Program amount to 1800 €. Language of instruction is English. Candidates can submit their applications anytime between February 1 and June 30. The Program starts on October 1, 2023.

For more information, including the application form and a list of required documents, visit <https://athensma.phs.uoa.gr>.

The Director of the Program

Prof. Panagiotis Thanassas

AthensMA@phs.uoa.gr